

FACT SHEET

Southernprint is an award winning web offset printing company based in Poole, Dorset with an excellent reputation for both magazine and commercial print.

As a leading UK magazine and catalogue printer, we're proud that many of the nation's best known consumer and contract publishers choose to print with us including: Bauer Media, IPC Media, John Brown Publishing, Redwood, Seven Squared and many others.

In the commercial market we have an outstanding reputation for producing high quality catalogues for retail, educational, travel, and office equipment brands as well as a variety of general commercial products. Our understanding of your market ensures that our customers get a quality product - on time, every time.

The latest printing and finishing technologies combined with an experienced and motivated workforce enables us to provide a consistently high quality, reliable and cost effective print service. The facility is fitted with the latest generation web offset presses capable of printing 16pp to 64pp, and are equipped to print products in a flexible range of sizes. Combined with substantial perfect binding and wire-stitching capacity across two sites, this gives us the firepower to bind the most demanding jobs to short schedules and get your products to market fast.

Southernprint is able to offer truly comprehensive print related services as part of the Wyndeham Group, including innovative cover finishing options with sister companies Grange and Impact, to help your brand stand out from the crowd.
